

Beauty news

Brand new products for you

By Fashion and Beauty Editor, Alexis Tshangana

Garnier signs new face for a new range

The well-known model, TV host and former Miss Teen SA Zizo Beda has been signed as the spokesperson for Garnier Skin Naturals' new Oil Control Complete Range. The vanishing cream and deep clean face wash (both R29,99) promises to purify, restore, moisturise and mattify. Available at all leading retailers.

Prima Donna is here!

Diva Divine Hair International is proud to announce the long awaited launch of its new hair brand, Prima Donna. This brand of hair comes from salons in Brazil as well as India (mixed hair). It's extremely affordable, and it lasts long. The hair can be coloured, washed and blow-dried and styles easily. It is only available in weaves at the moment – other variants will be available at a later stage. For stockists and info, visit www.divadivinehair.co.za or call 011 786 5675.

Oil-free skin with Clean & Clear

Clean & Clear has launched a great new skin care range that helps control shine all day long, without leaving your skin dry or tight. The range consists of: Shine Control Daily Face Wash with bursting beads, R59,99 and the Shine Control Daily Facial Scrub, R59,99.

The facial wash with Bursting Beads won't irritate the skin while the scrub gently removes all dirt and impurities from the skin.

BY : ALEXIS TSHANGANA PICTURES: SUPPLIED

Colour with L'Oreal

Intense, easy-to-wear co-ordinated lip and nail colours are finally here! The new Colour Riche, Made For Me Intense from L'Oreal Paris is bursting with fresh, funky and beautiful colours. The intense and illuminating lipsticks are easy to wear and have co-ordinating nail varnish made to match. Lipsticks are R119,95 and the matching nail varnishes are R74,95.

